

01
1932
COMPANION TO Contemporary
Musical Thought

Volume 2

EDITED BY

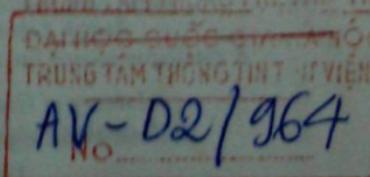

John Paynter

Tim Howell

Richard Orton

Peter Seymour

AV-1110V

LONDON AND NEW YORK

CONTENTS

VOLUME I

Notes on contributors	xi
Preface	xxxii
Introduction	xxxiii
JOHN PAYNTER
1 Music, the modern world, and the burden of history WILFRID MELLERS	1
PART I PEOPLE AND MUSIC 23
2 Music and people: the import of structure and form JOHN PAYNTER	25
3 Music, non-music and the soundscape R. MURRAY SCHAFER	34
4 Music in concert and music in the background: two poles of musical realization HANNS-WERNER HEISTER	46
5 Public performance and the concert as categories of musical action IRMGARD BONTINCK	72

6	What makes music musical? KEITH SWANWICK	82
7	The action value of musical experience and learning THOMAS A. REGELSKI	105
8	Musical as cultural text JOHN SHEPHERD	128
9	Music and the arts in pre-Renaissance and Renaissance worship: a question of 'expression' PETER LE HURAY	156
10	Handel's ghost: the composer's posthumous reputation in the eighteenth century ELLEN T. HARRIS	208
11	On patronage: 'Musick, that mind-tempering art' ANTHONY ROOLEY	226
12	Cloverleaf: a little narrative with several 'off-ramps' LOU HARRISON	248
13	Speculative music: the numbers behind the notes JOSCELYN GODWIN	256
14	Text, context, music ISTVAN ANHALT	272
15	On making music out of music EDWIN LONDON	290
16	Verso-l'uno WALTER BRANCHI	300
PART II THE TECHNOLOGY OF MUSIC		317
17	Musical, cultural and educational implications of digital technology RICHARD ORTON	319

18	A technological approach to music F. RICHARD MOORE	329
19	Towards a new age in the technology of computer music PETER MANNING	355
20	Electroacoustic music and the soundscape: the inner and outer world BARRY TRUAX	374
21	Composition with machines CURTIS ROADS	399
22	Artistic necessity, context orientation, configurable space CRAIG R. HARRIS	426
23	Flying through a musical space: about real-time composition JOEL CHADABE	454
24	Music and image on film and video: an absolute alternative DAVID KERSHAW	466
25	New musical instruments in the computer age: amplified performance systems and related examples of low-level technology HUGH DAVIES	500
26	The listening imagination: listening in the electroacoustic era DENIS SMALLEY	514
27	Composers and audiences: new relationships in the technological age BRUCE PENNYCOOK	555
28	Music and technology: problems and possibilities TREVOR WISHART	565
29	Composing sounds with computers JEAN-CLAUDE RISSET	583

VOLUME 2

PART III THE STRUCTURE OF MUSIC	613
30 Does it really mean anything? Some aspects of musical meaning LORENZER REITAN	623
31 Musical analysis: commentaries JONATHAN BUNSBY	634
32 Analysis and psychoanalysis: Wagner's musical metaphors CHRISTOPHER WINTLE	650
33 Analysis and performance: the search for a middleground TIM HOWELL	682
34 Analysis and the composer ROBERT SHERLAW-JOHNSON	718
35 New directions: the conception and development of a composition JONATHAN HARVEY	736
36 Morty Feldman is dead JAMES FULKERSON	751
37 From improvisation to composition RICHARD ORTON	762
38 Improvisation NEIL SORRELL	776
39 Improvisation, cognition and education ERIC F. CLARKE	787
40 Psychological structures in music: core research 1980-1990 JOHN A. SLOBODA	803

-
- 41 Aural training: material and method 840
GEORGE PRATT
- 42 Aspects of melody: an examination of the structure of Jewish and Gregorian chants 858
YEHEZKEL BRAUN
- 43 Music, number and rhetoric in the early Middle Ages 885
JOHN STEVENS

PART IV THE INTERPRETATION OF MUSIC 911

- 44 Oratory and performance 913
PETER SEYMOUR
- 45 Present and past: intermediaries and interpreters 920
WILFRID MELLERS
- 46 Performance practice studies: some current approaches to the Early Music phenomenon 931
PETER WILLIAMS
- 47 Renaissance attitudes to performance: a contemporary application 948
ANTHONY ROOLEY
- 48 Musical instruments and performers of the past 961
FRANCIS BAINES
- 49 Pst . . . Pst . . . Are you listening? Hearing voices from yesterday 977
ISTVAN ANHALT
- 50 Historical approaches to violin playing 993
DUNCAN DRUCE
- 51 Vocal consort style and tunings 1020
ROGERS COVEY-CRUMP

52	Authentic pronunciation for Early Music ALISON WRAY	1081
53	Liturgical reconstructions: an apologia and some guidelines GRAHAM DUNN	1088
54	'Anthemes for Versus and Chorus. . . . Ape for Viols and Voyses': the development of the English consort anthem, with some approaches to performance practice JOHN BRYAN	1079
55	'An Addicion of Wyer Stringes beside the Ordenary Stringes': the origin of theburyton PETER HOLMAN	1098
56	Producer for Early Music: a cog in the mechanism of musical life KLAUS L. NEUMANN	1116
57	Lutoslawski and a view of musical perspective PHILIP WILBY	1127
	Index	1147